

ASPIRING SUPERINTENDENT ACADEMY PROGRAM

LEAD OVERVIEW

The mission of the Leadership Empowerment and Development (LEAD) Office is to increase job-embedded value by nurturing leadership in service of the 32 community school districts (CSD) that comprise this great city.

By facilitating relevant, practical, and transformational professional learning and development opportunities that support professional growth, internal advancement, and retention; LEAD Talent Groups are being prepared to lead equitable, transformative, and sustainable change.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The mission of the Office of Leadership Empowerment and Development is to support talent by leading and facilitating professional learning and development opportunities to ensure coherence and sustainability throughout the system.

ASPIRING SUPERINTENDENT ACADEMY PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Aspiring Superintendent Academy is an opportunity for current or former school building leaders who aspire to become New York City Department of Education Community/High School Superintendents. Leaders interested in this opportunity will have a record of demonstrated impact of leadership as evidenced in student achievement, leadership capacity building, and an intentional focus on excellence and equity for all.

MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY

- Tenured principal in good standing with at least 5 years of experience
- Recommendation from Superintendent/ Supervisor
- SDL/SDA
- 250-400 word writing sample (prompt given at time of application)

Cohort Size: 15

Time Frame: Three months

QUESTIONS?

Learn more about the NYCDOE leadership pipeline.

Contact us: leadershippathways@schools.nyc.gov